STATE RAIDERS NAB SALEM MAN

Beer Found At Seminola Home, Broadway: He Pays $100 Fine

Samuel Vogelhuber of Salem, who was indicted by the special June grand jury for the possession of implements designed for the manufacturing of liquor, third offense, has been sentenced by Judge W. F. Lones to pay a fine of $500 and also sentenced to serve from one to five years.

He withdrew his former plea of not guilty, and entered a plea of guilty at Lisbon Wednesday.

Charged with the possession of a beer, Vogelhuber, 25, entered a plea of guilty when given a hearing before Justice of the Peace M. K. Zimmerman at Lisbon, and was fined $100 and costs, which he paid.

Raid by State Men
State prohibition inspector Lloyd Wine and his assistant, J. P. Tice, obtained a search warrant for the property, and when they entered a set of "mookeys" was dumped before the officers could obtain any for evidence, and then the beer was found. Seminola signed a waiver and entered a plea of guilty to the charge. He declared that he was only a roomer at the property searched, but that he made the beer himself.

Ralph Martino of 1421 Main street, Wellsville, was raided by the same officers and three and one-half half pints of corn liquor was obtained. This place was entered on a search warrant, and Martino was fined $300 and costs, and was sentenced to serve from one to five years.

PREMIER TAKES AIR TO LONDON

Messages Urging Him To Use Safety Disregarded by Mac Donald

Lisbon, Scotland, June 20.—Premier Ramsay MacDonald this morning disregarded messages from all over the country urging him to use a safer method of traveling by boarding a Royal Air Force bomber plane so that he could get to London in the shortest possible time.

A scout machine accompanied the bomber. Both planes took off from a field two miles from the Macdonald home here.

About 400 of his friends gave the premier a hearty send-off. He wore a leather flying coat, aviator's goggles and had a parachute strapped to his back.

It takes a little more than 13 hours from here to London by train. By plane, the premier will be in London in less than half that time.

This will allow him time to prepare for the cabinet meeting scheduled for tomorrow at which it is expected he will outline in more detail his cabinet reduction plans which he revealed in his speech here Tuesday.

Voros Sentenced To State Reformatory

Save Voros of Salem put over a bad check for $25.85 recently and now he has been sentenced to serve from one to five years in the Mansfield Reformatory.

Voros was indicted by the special grand jury and entered a plea of not guilty. When arraigned, he told the court at Lisbon that he "did not know how to plead" and then said, "I'll tell you how it was." But the judge told him that it was not then his business to talk about the merits or demerits of his case.

A plea of not guilty was then entered, and bond was placed at $3,000.

Army Pigeon, War Hero, Is Dead

Washington, June 20.—Word reached the war department today of the death of the veteran army pigeon, President Wilson, hero of the Meuse-Argonne offensive, at the signal corps loft, Monmouth, N. J.

President Wilson was one of the famous pigeons of the World War. During an intensive machine gun and artillery action the morning of November 5, 1918, he was liberated at Grand Pre, in the Argonne, with an important message. Twenty-five minutes later flying through fire and fog, according to his citation, he arrived at Rampant, 25 miles away, with one leg shattered and his breast pierced by a machine gun bullet.

The message he carried was safe, hanging to the ligaments of the torn leg. The bird was pensioned on his return to the United States and had been enjoying a rest at the Fort Monmouth loft since. He lived to the ripe age of 11 years.

STORMS STRIKE OHIO BUT FAIL TO CURB HEAT

Springfield Stores And Houses Flooded; Many Buildings Struck

SLIGHT RELIEF FOR SALEMITES

Lightning Strikes Homes In Alliance; Storm Misses This City

Slight rainfall furnished Salem residents temporary relief from the intense heat Wednesday, but the temperature at noon had reached a maximum of 94 degrees, one degree less than was registered Tuesday.

The minimum temperature, during the day, City Chemist R. P. Vickers reports from the barometer at the sewage treatment plant, was 58 degrees, the total rainfall being 2 inches.

Salem, Vickers reports, was on the edge of a rainstorm, and failed to get the full force of it. The barometer indicated only slight change in temperature during the next 24 hours.

Several Houses Struck
Cleveland, June 20.—A heavy rain and electrical storm, bringing a precipitation of 1.75 inches, relieved this city of excessive midsummer heat late yesterday and resulted in slight damage from lightning.

A flagpole in the Sheriff st market was torn from its turret and several houses about the city also were struck.

Homes, Stores Flooded
Springfield, O., June 20.—This city is today recovering from a cloudburst which caused local creeks to overflow and flood homes and stores, and which was responsible for the death of a 9-year-old boy.

Stranded in lower sections of the city, automobile had water inside—some of them up to their tops.

William Huffman, 9, who lived in the street in front of his home where the water was a veritable river, stepped into a hole and was drowned.

Interurban and street-car lines were tied up by the high waters yesterday afternoon, following the cloudburst.

Bolts Hit Alliance
Alliance, June 20.—Lightning struck two Alliance homes at noon Wednesday during the thunder storm which "broke the back" of the first severe heat wave of the summer.

Firemen made a run to a two-family dwelling at 175-177 Williams court where lightning struck at 12:08 p. m. The building is occupied by J. Hardy and B. B. Swenhart. The roof was damaged and the chimney torn down by the bolt. The chief's car and No. 3 truck made the run.

The second house was occupied by J. F. McGinley at 728 South Mechanic ave. Lightning damaged the electric wires and blew the fuses in the home. No. 1 truck and the chief's car answered the alarm. Neither building was ignited.

Provision for the creation of this new state department is contained in the Ingalls act, passed at the recent state legislative session. The act becomes effective as law June 25. It authorizes expenditure of $6,000 a year to defray expenses of the department.

Assistant Secretary of War David S. Ingalls, Cleveland, introduced this bill while a member of the Ohio house of representatives. Ingalls and Vorys served together during the World War in France. NUZEM FACING ROBBERY COUNT

Rogers Man Arrested By Sheriff After Two Months' Search

Lisbon, June 20.—A two-months' search covering West Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Ohio was ended today with the arrest of William Nuzem, Rogers, on a robbery charge, for which he was indicted by the April grand jury.

Nuzem had been missing from the county since the indictment was returned against him, efforts to capture him being extended throughout the state and both neighboring states. Reports that he was in hiding three miles across the state line, near Darlington, Pa., were received by Sheriff W. J. Baylow Wednesday afternoon and the sheriff and Deputies James Elliot and T. C. Virden immediately started an extensive search of the territory.

Investigations were carried on four miles north of Darlington, where the sheriff and deputies surrounded the home of Alva Nuzem, young Nuzem's father. The house was searched, Nuzem being found hiding in a building near the residence.

He demanded the officers show extradition papers, but agreed to accompany them to Lisbon, where he is now being held, awaiting trial on the robbery charge. The alleged robbery is reported to have occurred in Rogers several months ago.

Lotti Kisses Young Stowaway Farewell As He Starts Home

Paris, June 20.—Having achieved his ambition and crossed the Atlantic by airplane, Arthur Schreiber, who stowed away in the fuselage of the monoplane "Yellow Bird," boarded a train for Cherbourg at 9:50 o'clock this morning to catch the liner Leviathan which sails for New York today.

Armeno Lotti, Jr., sponsor of the "Yellow Bird" flight and the stowaway's business manager, saw him off at the station. Lotti had become quite attached to the 22-year-old Portland youth and kissed him on both cheeks in bidding him goodbye.

Schreiber is sailing "tourist third." His passage costs $125. The money was advanced by Lotti. Schreiber expects to return the money from the profits he hopes to make as the result of his daring venture.

Insurgent Congress Snarling Way Homeward, With Half Of Hoover Program Undone

Washington, June 20.—A rebellious and insurgent congress snarled its way homeward today, leaving half the things President Hoover wanted done not done and with the threat that when it reassembles in late summer there will be fireworks aplenty.

The first session of the 71st congress—the so-called "honeymoon session" of the new administration—was anything but harmonious.

Tariff Half Finished
Grudgingly, and by dint of very adroit political maneuvering it gave President Hoover the kind of a Farm Relief Bill he wanted, and it passed the reapportionment bill which he recommended. There it stopped.

It left behind today a Tariff Bill half-finished, and it is the kind of a tariff bill that is giving President Hoover and his advisers cold shivers. Mr. Hoover wanted "limited revision" for agriculture and a few "sick industries."

The house has provided him, instead, with a bill revising more than 2,000 schedules upward, which senate Republican leaders have every intention of increasing it further. It is this Tariff bill passes in anything like its present form late this summer, it will put a pretty problem up to Mr. Hoover whether to veto it or approve it.

Dry Forces Relieved
Vastly relieved over the departure of congress and a consequent slackening of the drum fire of criticism, prohibition authorities pressed forward today with their plans for a "clean up" of the Canadian border situation, with Detroit as the spearhead of the drive.

Congress departed grumbling and critical over the present trend of enforcement.

In the closing hours, President Hoover was subjected to the most savage attack he has yet experienced in congress, at the end of which both houses failed to carry out his request for the appointment of a joint committee to study the question of transferring enforcement from the treasury to the department of justice.

And Mr. Hoover himself was accused of "passivity" on the whole question of prohibition. The accusation came from no less a dry than Senator Carter Glass (D) Virginia, himself a former secretary of the treasury.

Meanwhile the barrage of protests over the recent wave of prohibition killings kept up in and out of congress.

Charles Bonnell, who is attending the grand annual state encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic and its allied orders at Findlay in a letter to The News, states that there is a large attendance at the encampment.

Tuesday visiting delegations were given a fine reception. Daughters of American Veterans tents and Women's Relief Corps gave splendid reports.

The auxiliaries presented the department command with a check for $1,000 which will go into the state treasury.

At noon Tuesday 300 veterans were entertained at a dinner at the Elks home there.

Bonnell stated that "residents of Findlay are treating us with surprising kindness and devotion."

Disposal Plant Produces 12,000 Cu. Ft. Gas Daily

Salem's New Sewage Treatment Project Supplies Its Own Gas For Heating and Incinerating Purposes Through Action In Digester

Twelve thousand cubic feet of gas are produced daily at the new sewage treatment plant, from the digested sludge from the sewage, and turned into gas at the plant.

The gas supplies heat for almost the entire plant and enables the city to dispose of heavy collections of indigestible sludge in the incinerator.

All sludge from the sewage enters the digesters. City Engineer P. S. Barckhoff explains, after passing through the digestion process and there, the bacterial action liberates the volatile matter in the form of gas. This gas is almost identical to that used in homes for heating and commercial purposes.

To manufacture this gas, the plant must continually maintain a temperature of 70 to 80 degrees in the digester, some of the manufactured gas being used up to produce this heat. The incinerator uses a large quantity and the main building, equipped with the biological and research laboratory, engine rooms, and other rooms, is heated with the gas. Several homes could be supplied with sufficient gas for heating and lighting.

ATTORNEY SAYS DOCTOR HASN'T ADMITTED ACT

Suspect In Hix Case Was Questioned By Police For 16 Hours

BEGGED HIM FOR COCAINE, HE SAYS

Detective Says Professor Insists He Was Told Not To Talk

Columbus, June 20.—Whether Dr. James H. Snook has confessed to the slaying of Miss Theora Hix, 25-year-old Ohio State university coed, the night of June 13, was nearly as baffling as the mysterious murder itself at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

A Columbus newspaper is selling extras on the streets, bawled with the headline: "Prof. Snook confesses."

The story is based on what police officials claim was an alleged confession of Snook, following a 16-hour grilling which ended at 6:15 o'clock today.

Denies Confession
John F. Seidel, attorney for Snook, issued a statement declaring that while authorities told him Snook had confessed, the former university professor had not admitted the murder.

Seidel indicated that he might apply for a writ of habeas corpus in an attempt to release Snook.

At the end of the 16-hour questioning, officials permitted Snook to be taken from the city to the county jail for breakfast. At 7:45 they dashed after him and entered his cell. He was again grilling until about 10 o'clock when the officers took the prisoner back to the city jail where the third-degreeing was resumed.

Other authorities questioned the doctor until noon. They called in Detective Otto Phillips, the officer who secured the alleged damaging admissions from Snook during the night. Phillips is known as the "ace" of police cross-examiners.

Advised Not To Talk
Phillips ate breakfast with the prisoner this morning, following the 16-hour grilling which lasted throughout the night.

The detective announced, later in the morning, that he asked the former professor:

"Who did you kill the girl?" Snook replied he had been advised "not to talk."

Phillips declared he repeated his question and that Snook answered: "She had been begging me for cocaine. Wait until it comes out."

Horribly mutilated, the body of Miss Hix, pretty 25-year-old university medical student, was found among the weeds of a rifle range on the outskirts of the city June 14. The girl had been brutally beaten and slashed to her death the previous night.

Until his admission early today, Dr. Snook, who had admitted sharing a one-room apartment "love nest" with the girl, had steadfastly maintained that he last saw his sweetheart on June 12.

Authorities place the utmost importance on the confession.

STARTING TO FIGHT

News dispatches that an army of keen-eyed men is being mobilized on the Detroit river front by the United States government. Sandwiched in between accounts of dry-raid killings at various points over the nation, it is deeply reminiscent of the famous challenge of John Paul Jones, "We have just begun to fight."

Those who have been following the enforcement program of the administration believe that Detroit has been selected as the national experimental station for the frays. If that surmise be correct, their courage deserves admiration, for no more unfavorable spot could be found. Separated from the Canadian border by less than a mile of water, inhabited by a population much of which is favorable to present conditions if return cannot be made to the days of free and easy access, Detroit is a proving ground of high merit. If prohibition can be enforced there, it stands a fair chance anywhere else in the nation.

The keen-eyed men who are reported to be filtering into the city on every incoming train—what will they do? Is Detroit to become an actual battle ground, or will other methods be adopted? Will it be war between the Canadian run runner and the American government?

One thing is certain in the light of present feeling against the slaughter of innocent citizens by zealous prohibition agents. There cannot be many more murders of innocents or near innocents. The people's faith in prohibition is not deep enough to accept death as a necessary factor in its enforcement. Canadian respect for the experiment is not great enough to let that country stand by and watch its citizens fall before the machine guns and rifles of dry agents and already protest has been received by American officials by Canadian pleasure craft on the Detroit river which have been fired upon without apparent reason.

This forthcoming battle must be carefully planned and executed or its fighters will lose the support of the people for whom they are fighting. It must not be victory at any cost.

TAKE IT AND LIKE IT

For months we waited for it. For months we watched coal piles dwindle and shoveled snow. In our thoughts were sweet memories of the beautiful days of summer when the trees and grass were green, when the air was sweet with the scent of flowers, when straw hats could be worn—a hundred things peculiar to summer time. Then, after the trees finally began to turn green, after faith in the eternal round of nature had been restored in many a doubting breast, there were weeks of impatience while the temperature belied the appearance of things and all life seemed to be a huge mockery. Those were terrible days with the straw hat and the overcoat hanging side by side in the clothes closet and neither knowing which would go out first.

It's over now. Summer weather is here and people are dying from the heat. Women, blessed with the popular style of sleeveless dresses display vast expanses of cooling area to the breeze; men, cursed with the pretense of respectability suffer with conformist styles in shirts, coats and, in some cases, vests. The pedestrian pants and mops his brow; the motorist opens the window and impregnates himself with flying dirt and dust. Eyes weak from cellular confinement for months and months blink weakly in the strong sunlight. Everyone looks at everyone else and says, "Ain't it awful? It's just about got me down." There is a general feeling of sickness, of smothered oppression and those same children of nature who longed for the coming of good old summer weather wonder how long they can last without getting out somewhere for a rest away from the heat.

We want what we want when we want it. We wanted summer in the latter part of the winter. We got it in the middle of the summer. Soon we shall be longing for fall. Few of us ever long for winter, but we'll be ready enough to admit that we are tired of the warm weather. Summer is right here with us while we pant and perspire. Let's get right down to hard work and enjoy it so that next winter's reminiscences will be the more enjoyable.

What Others Say

WANTED: AMERICANS!
The crying need in the United States today is for more Americans. This fact has never been made more evident than by the spectacle of groups in both houses of congress attempting to trample the constitution under foot in a mad struggle for special privileges for their own states, whatever the consequences may be to the rest of the union.

The country has people enough. What it is short on is men and women big enough to realize that the good of the whole is of more importance than that of any of its parts albeit those parts are their own constituencies. The champions of special privileges for this section or that class doubtless will be highly offended to be told that they are not Americans. Weren't they born in this country? Aren't they citizens of it? Wouldn't they fight for it if war came and they were conscripted?

Americans whose patriotism to so sporadic with respect to time as well as to place are Americans only in name. They are not Americans in fact or feeling. They lack the essential quality of Americanism, which is the ability to see that the great socio-political experiment going on in this country can not succeed unless the citizenry is as patriotic in peace as it is in war. They are like the man who, asked at the border if he resided in this country, answered in the negative and then proudly announced he hailed from Arkansas.

Washington foresaw this very thing and warned his countrymen against it, when he decried the exaltation of local appellations above the name American, which belonged to them in their national capacity. This warning has been too little heeded. Wherever he turns today, whatever walk of life he enters, a thoughtful American is painfully impressed by the relatively negligible number of his fellow-citizens capable of envisaging the United States as a whole, what its destiny is and what is necessary to enable it to reach its appointed goal.

The number of those who are willing to fight for their state, county or city is legion. There are their treasures. They are lost in the more remote field of national necessities. They lack the stature to see over the wall that surrounds their personal interests. The vast extent of the country and the complexity of its problems doubtless does present a large eyeful for the ordinary citizen; but those who rise to high office, where they obtain a broad and all-embracing view of the national scenery, should be able to grasp the importance of not adding to the strains already imposed upon the constitution, another challenge of the fundamental principles upon which not only that document, but the American system of government are based.—Detroit Free Press.

(United States Senator from New York)

Everybody has a dread of tuberculosis. This used to be such a common and fatal disease that all mankind came to fear it.

One of the achievements of modern science is the progress it has made in conquering tuberculosis. It is disappearing rapidly thanks to general knowledge of personal hygiene. We may hope to see it disappear as one of the major ailments.

A symptom which is almost always associated with tuberculosis is bleeding from the lungs. No matter whence it came, blood in the sputum always alarms the victim. At once he wonders if there is something dreadfully wrong.

"Hemoptysis" is the term given to such expectoration of blood. Not by any means is blood in the sputum due to a serious disturbance.

It may come from bleeding from the gums, or from a cut place in the tongue or inside of the cheek. A crust of bread or a rough tooth may injure the delicate tissues and cause hemorrhage.

Following a severe attack of coughing there may be a rupture of the tissues in the throat. In consequence, the sputum may be stained with blood.

While we are about it, we better speak of other conditions that cause bleeding and its expulsion from the mouth. I had not thought to be quite so technical, but having begun, it may be better to complete the story.

Twenty Years Ago

(Issue of June 20, 1909)

Lisbon—Rev. A. I. Young, for the past five years pastor of the United Presbyterian church here, stated Sunday morning that Wednesday will close a period of 40 years of service as minister of the gospel.

One hundred and ninety poor children were given an automobile ride by the Salvation army in Akron recently.

About 60 farmers and farmers' wives in this vicinity are planning to go to Wooster Tuesday morning to visit the experiment station. The trip is being arranged by the Columbiana County Corn Improvement association.

Alliance—While in bathing at Rockhill park Saturday afternoon Andrew Lynch, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynch, was seized with cramps and drowned.

East Palestine—Homer Hill, 16, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hill, was instantly killed Sunday by a fall

In hemoptysis the blood is coughed up. The discharge is bright red and quite frothy. It is mixed with air.

There is another condition called "hematemesis." This term is used to describe bleeding from the stomach.

In this condition the blood is likely to be vomited up, but, of course, may be expelled in small quantities. This is a much more serious thing than hemoptysis. It is due to some disease of the stomach, as ulcer or something even more important.

If much blood is expelled no matter what its source, the important thing is to keep absolutely still. An ice-bag over the throat, chest or stomach, wherever it appears, is the place from which the blood comes. It will help to control the bleeding.

If the blood comes from the mouth or throat, bits of ice held in the mouth will be useful. The cold tends to stop the bleeding.

Unless you locate the seat of trouble, talk with your doctor. If the bleeding continues or is profuse he should be called at once.

In the meantime keep quiet in bed. Have the pillows high, so as to raise the upper part of the body. Remember that a lot of blood can come from a very small spot. You have cut your finger just a tiny bit and bled furiously. So don't think you have some dreadful thing wrong with you. The chances are all on your side.

SOHIO refined to special

summer specifications

Stops knocking, gives smooth, even power... and a cool motor

IN WARM WEATHER gasoline must meet vastly different conditions than exist during winter. The need for quick starting volatility vanishes. Gasoline must now have special qualities to provide smooth, sustained power for hard, fast driving.

Knocking becomes more pronounced in summer, particularly in modern high-compression motors, and in motors caked with carbon. The danger of overheating arises. A knocking motor labors on hills, causes excessive vibration, a noticeable loss of power and needless wear and tear on the engine.

Weeks ago engineers of the Standard Oil of Ohio began making Sohio to meet these special summer conditions. Summer Sohio Ethyl eliminates the troublesome knock, puts new snap into lazy, sluggish motors and gives you cool, quiet, dependable operation. When you fill your tank with Summer Sohio Ethyl today, you'll find these outstanding improvements in your car's operation:

1. An end to knocking.
2. Pre-ignition absolutely prevented.
3. Smoother, more even power.
4. Less need for frequent gear shifting.

Summer Sohio is on sale everywhere in the State—at 700 Red-White-and-Blue Standard service stations and by thousands of dealers. Test it yourself—in your own car. You'll find that there is a difference in gasoline!

Andrei On Trial

Teofil Andrei of Salem has been placed on trial in common pleas court charged under an indictment returned by the February grand jury with the possession of intoxicating liquor third offense. He is being defended by Attorney K. L. Colburn of Salem, while the state is represented by Prosecuting Attorney John E. Bauknecht and his assistant, George L. Laiferty. He has been at liberty under $2,000 bond.

The court overruled a motion several months ago for an order of court to return the property seized and suppress the evidence, and the exceptions of the defendant were then entered in the record.

State Probation Inspector W. J. Bayham and former State Probation Inspector John Cole of Steubenville are witnesses in this case. Cole was recently retired from the probation department following an investigation that he used young girls at Lancaster to obtain evidence in liquor cases.

Mistrial in George Case

Don't let Rheumatism

make an invalid of you—S.S.S. stands ready to knock it out.

THOSE muscular pains, commonly called rheumatism, are generally due to a run-down condition, with the number of red-blood-cells below the normal count.

S.S.S. aids the system in building up these red-blood-cells and in getting rid of the condition which the rheumatism is but a symptom. The body becomes strong and disease-resistant, and the rheumatic pains go.

Pains in your muscles and joints make you miserable, less efficient, interfere with your working hours, ruin your sleep. If allowed to continue, as the years pass the danger increases.

But what a change with rich, red-blood-cells in your body—Nature's building material—making the flesh firm—giving strength to the vital organs.

You can't rub rheumatism out. It is deeper than that. It must be knocked out. And the sure way is by helping the fighting blood—the red-blood-cells!

New Medicine Was First And Only
One That Touched Her Case

MRS. JOSEPHINE JONES

"For the past year, I was so ill that I began to fear that there was nothing to help me," said Mrs. Josephine Jones, Route No. 1, Valley Pike, Dayton, Ohio. "Everything I tried failed and I might just as well have taken so much water. I was sick all over, had dizzy spells and was very nervous and weak."

"Three bottles of this new medicine, Konjola, swept away that terrible feeling, calmed my nerves and ended the dizzy spells. I could feel renewed strength all over me. I am doing my work now, and gaining in weight and in strength. Konjola is simply wonderful, and I take pleasure in adding my indorsement to thousands who know what this remedy really is."

Konjola is sold in Salem, O., at J. H. Lase Drug Store (Mr. Kaminsky) and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

SNOOK

(Continued from Page 1) — porance on the statement of Snook who, according to Prosecutor J. Chester, admitted returning to Miss Hix a key to their "love nest" on June 13, Snook turned into the landlady of the apartment the same key the night before the body of the murdered girl had been identified as that of Miss Hix, Chester declared.

Got Key At Body
Chief of Detectives W. G. Shellenbarger informed International News Service that when Snook, during the grilling this morning was asked where he secured the key to return to the landlady, he replied:

"At the body."
The grilling of Snook started at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The probes, seven of them, worked in relays. It was the most grueling third-degree in police annals here.

Snook maintained a remarkable calmness until 3 o'clock this morning. Then he became nervous and, according to Chief Shellenbarger, contradicted himself.

Mrs. Snook, wife of the former Ohio State university professor was questioned by authorities Tuesday. Discrepancies between the information she gave and the statements of her husband are believed to have caused Snook to become muddled in his answers this morning.

The woman told investigators that she did not know of the relationship between Snook and Miss Hix until after the murder.

RACE GAMBLING WAR OUTLINED

Two Prosecutors Confer With Bettman; Action Is Promised

Columbus, June 20.—Plans for halting gambling at the West Jefferson dog race track and at the Bainbridge track where horse-racing is taking place were discussed at conferences held here today between Attorney General Gilbert Bettman, Prosecuting Attorney Dean Richmond, Madison county, and County Prosecutor Richard Bostwick, of Georgia county.

These conferences, however, failed to result in any agreement providing for immediate action. Prosecutor Richmond, it was stated, promised Bettman that he would start action next Monday. The nature of Richmond's plan was not revealed. Richmond opposed the attorney general's proposal that action be instituted at once, it was said. He declared that juries and citizens generally in Madison county, for years, have failed to properly support public officials in the matter of law enforcement.

Richmond indicated his intention of appealing to residents of his county, between now and Monday, to rally to his support.

At the close of his conference with Prosecutor Bostwick, Bettman issued the following statement: "Bostwick called upon me at my request. We discussed obligations resting upon county officials and the people of the county to enforce the law in their county."

"Bostwick explained that the racing meet at Bainbridge was closing Saturday and any action, therefore, seemed unnecessary. He said he did not expect there would be any attempt to resume racing in that county and that the issue was a dead one so far as Georgia county was concerned."

RAILROAD WINS DAMAGE ACTION

Alliance, June 20.—By a nine-to-three vote a jury in Judge Ogilvie's court at Youngstown, returned a verdict in favor of the Stark Electric Railroad company of Alliance late Tuesday in the $50,000 suit filed by Allan King of near Alliance.

King sought damages for injuries received August 31, 1927, when a truck driven by Roy Carlson, his step-father, was demolished by a Stark Electric interurban at The Maples, between Alliance and Sebring.

The suit began in the Youngstown court Monday morning with both sides calling a large number of witnesses. Shortly after noon Tuesday, the case was given to the jury which one hour later, returned a verdict for the railway company, setting aside King's plea for damages.

In observance of St. John's day, members of Perry lodge No. 185, F. & A. M., and Salem City lodge No. 698, F. & A. M., will attend the Sunday morning service at the First Methodist Episcopal church.

Rev. L. S. Rose, pastor of the church, invited these fraternities to this service.

WOMAN INJURED IN AUTO WRECK

Sebring, June 20.—While being towed by a truck from the Kuntzman garage, a sedan with Mrs. Homer Crewson of Alliance at the wheel turned over near the Teapot Dome filling station, Sebring-Alliance road, about 9:30 Wednesday morning.

According to a report by Alliance police, the towed car failed to stop when the truck stopped at the Pennsylvania railroad crossing near the station. The sedan turned over on its side.

Mrs. Crewson received a number of bruises. Her mother, Mrs. Barbara Semek of 238 West Washington st., may have a fractured shoulder. Miss Laura Yosey, 692 South Union ave., Alliance, another member of the party, escaped with a cut elbow.

The three were admitted to the Alliance City hospital where Mrs. Semek was the only one detained for x-ray observation. Others in the car were Geraldine Zwahlen and Alice Zerika, Alliance.

The party planned to attend the wedding in Youngstown Wednesday morning of Miss Nellie Korsey, daughter of Frank Korsey, Stanley ave., Alliance and Jack Vollinger of Youngstown.

GRAF ZEPPELIN PLANNING TRIP

Giant Dirigible Will Start Around World Voyage About July 15; Inspecting Ship's Motors

Friedrichshafen, June 20.—Reports that the trans-Atlantic dirigible "Graf Zeppelin" would start its round-the-world flight on July 15 were described today by Dr. Hugo Eckener, commander, as "pre-mature."

"We hope to start during July," he said, "it may be July 15, and it may be two weeks later. Our investigation of the airship's motors has not yet been completed."

SEEKS LARGER AIR PROGRAM

Military Affairs Leader Plans to Inspect All Aviation Posts

Washington, June 20.—Declaring that congress must take steps when it reconvenes to expand the army's $150,000,000 five-year aviation program, Rep. W. Frank James (R.) of Michigan, chairman of the house military affairs committee, prepared to make a 15,000-mile inspection trip of all aviation posts.

A strong advocate of adequate air preparedness, James asserted that the five-year program already is obsolete.

"We ought to start holding hearings soon on the question of another five or ten year aviation program," he said. "The present program will be completed in 1931, when the army will have 1,000 planes."

"This program is obsolete before it is completed. The importance of aviation as a part of the national defense cannot be over-estimated. We must have more and better planes."

In Hawaii alone, I am informed by competent military officers, the number of airplanes, officers, and men is only 20 per cent of requirements under the 5 year program. The peace strength in aviation in Hawaii, the Philippines and Panama should be the same as war strength.

"The airplane is the first line of defense in these far-off possessions. Reinforcements could not be delivered easily. So the army and navy both must be prepared at all times to defend them."

PLAN BIG RACE FOR SEA PLANES

Four Nations Will Compete In Speed Event Which Carries But Small Prize

London, June 20.—Four nations today are engaged in preparations which will cost them the best part of $5,000,000 merely to win $150 "pot." The "pot" is the modest trophy presented by the late Jacques Schneider for competition among sea planes. Over a million spectators are expected to witness this year's cup race, which will be held by the waters of the Solent on September 9.

Great Britain, the United States, France and Italy have entered planes in the race.

Chicago Bruins Trim Cards Twice To Step Into National Lead

REDBIRDS DROP BACK TO THIRD PLACE IN LOOP

Old League Race Becomes Four-Way Affair As Giants Win Two

By LES CONKLIN

New York, June 29.—The Chicago Cubs, who have been letting St. Louis and Pittsburgh set the pace in the National League scramble, are back in first place today as the culmination of a steady climb since their disastrous series with the Giants. McCarthy's maulers dote on home cooking and have been creeping ahead on their own grounds during the past two weeks.

The Bruins double triumph over the Cardinals yesterday, by scores of 7 to 3 and 11 to 3, has revived pennant hopes of Chicago fans. Pat Malone won his tenth game of the season in the first, breezing ten men, and was aided by Wilson's homer with two on and four hits by Hornsby.

In the second, Sylvester Johnson of the Cards couldn't locate the plate and lost his last game of the season. The Cardinals dropped all the way to third place below the Pirates, who got off to a six-run lead against Cincinnati, but just managed to win by a 6-5 score. Manager Hendricks of the Reds threw 16 players into the breach, but unfortunately was allowed to use only nine at a time.

Giants Win Two

Baker Bowl, the cradle of circuit clouts, ushered eight new home runs into the world as the Giants debauched the Phillies twice, 15 to 14 and 12 to 6, in more than six hours of alleged baseball. The opener lasted eleven innings. Roush got eight hits and Ott seven. Each player snacked two homers.

With Smith and Seibold doing the throwing, the Braves subdued Brooklyn twice, 8 to 4 and 9 to 0. Clark and Dudley, the Brooklyn hurlers, were hit harder than Max Schmeling's sparring partners.

The embattled Yankees will face the Athletics tomorrow with a 7½ game deficit, but with renewed confidence gained by their 13 to 2 slaughter of the Red Sox yesterday. The champions rapped out twenty hits for a total of 31 bases while Dead Pan Eddie Wells was pulverized by the Boston batters.

Gaston Gets Homer

The Yanks got so far ahead that Bob Meusel, never noted for his energy, walked after a fly by Alex Gaston, allowing that lucky young man to make a home run. Meusel was a terror at bat, however, waloping four hits. George Ruth, the new crab and fish man of Chesapeake Bay, made one appearance at bat and gracefully grounded out.

The champions have been unable to shake off the St. Louis Browns, who scored their ninth win in ten starts against the White Sox, 5 to 2. Adkins outpitched Gray but his wildness was costly.

The Tigers were clawing the Indians viciously when rain ended the feast after six innings, with Detroit leading 8 to 3.

Dopesters Unable To Select Winner In Thursday's Battle

Schmeling Picked by Walsh As Better Scrapper Than Paulino; Defeats From Unknowns Go Against Him; Expect $600,000 Gate

BY DAVIS J. WALSH

New York, June 29.—They will be telling you shortly in a very knowing manner just who is going to win, Schmeling or Paulino, at the Yankee stadium Thursday night and, being an impulsive, generous fellow that way, I'm willing to mention without further preamble at least two ways in which both of them can lose. It has been demonstrated before that no fight should be called in advance; this is one that can't be called, unless you are one of those geniuses who go in for the blindfold test in a big way.

In brief, it is the writer's opinion that all serious attempts to call the turn on this one can run very doggedly for Sweeney and most of his first cousins. A lot of bowlers may call it but they won't be able to tell you why they did it.

This Schmeling, for example, is far and away the class of the two men—as far as the eye is able to see. But the eye never looked through a man's jaw and it is history that he has been belted right on the buckle, or whisker, by some very comical opponents, including Larry Gaines, Gypsy Daniels and a chump by the name of Rumlur or something. True, he claimed he wasn't looking but unfortunately, every incident in question got in the record books.

Can Schmeling Make It? Outside of this, the fighter seems to be fool-proof. He has everything "winning habit" and sometimes that is hard to lick.

Woodchopper Unchanged

The boys have been up in Hoosick Falls starting intently for days at a time at the spectacle afforded by Paulino going through his workouts. They are trying to discover what he has, a secret known only to the hundreds of thousands who have seen him in his fights. Paulino is the same heavyweight who came to America several years ago and he never will be different—an honest fighter whose only defense is to cover his chin until he is set for a punch. Meantime, he bores everlastingly in so that his short arms will get the range for a body attack. If he can do this, it is one of the ways he can win.

He can lose by being too cautious with that elbow-barriade defense of his, for then Schmeling would jab his way to a point-victory while Paulino was doing nothing. This was the way he fought. Delaney, who also was presumed to have a great right hand. Finally, of course, Paulino can lose if he gets hit on the frontispiece. He may be tough but that punch of Schmeling's is a certified wow and you can go right out and bet on it.

All in all, it seems to be established that Schmeling has the punch but not the chin and Paulino the chin without the punch, which brings us to the question: Whether are we drifting? And the answer is, everywhere.

For this will be a fight to look at, not to bet on.

The active life of a piece of giant artillery is about three seconds.

The Electric Furnace baseball nine with a forfeited game chalked up against it in the city league for its failure to appear for its scheduled game last week, is slated to clash with the Salem China outfit at Centennial park, at 5:45 this evening.

The Furnace aggregation made arrangements with Joe Kelley yesterday to have a team on the field, and, will put a strong squad into action against the Potters, who lost a tough 5-3 struggle to the Colonial Billiards Friday.

The Billiards meet the Masons, who were awarded the forfeit over the furnace-makers, in Friday evening's contest.

Brookhart Defends Federal Agents Responsible For Killing Of 150 Innocent Citizens

Washington, June 20.—The prohibition shootings in which federal agents have killed 150 innocent citizens, were defended in the senate by Senator Brookhart (R) of Iowa, Wednesday.

Brookhart told his fellow senators to "stop all this gush stuff about murders." He urged the senatorial wets to make speeches decrying the murder of 35 prohibition enforcement agents by bootleggers.

"I have no sympathy with bootleggers," said Brookhart. "They have got to obey the laws of our country."

STYLE EDICTS

Paris, June 20.—Silks will stand up alone in the autumn, according to the latest predictions of the French fabric makers who are announcing a decided return to very stiff weaves for winter wear.

Taffetas and old moires are being shown and some very old weaves used more than fifty years ago. Poulx de soie is being revived in great quantities and there will be surah, faille and taffetas with self-brocaded designs in particularly heavy weights.

One of the most striking of the old silks coming back to fashion is a velvet which the French call "velours au sabre," a heavy stiff weave with satin ground which is warp-printed and has the pile partly cut to accompany the design of the print. The pile is cut with a knife resembling a little sword, hence the name.

Velvets with small woven motifs will be more popular than the printed ones this fall and winter and those with metal designs appearing in the ground where the pile is cut are being stressed by some of the dressmakers.

A stunning panne satin which is extremely fine and supple panne velvet gives the effect of a satin crepe from a short distance. Plain velvets are pressed into moire designs, sometimes with relief effects.

Petrels are so named because their habit of walking on water recalls the biblical story of Peter.

THE GUMPS—YES AND NO

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Back to the natural grain of wood and color of metal for sheer beauty is another pleasing phase of modern fashion. In most houses there are fine pieces of furniture more or less buried beneath coats of varnish which utterly conceal their beauty. Paint and varnish have their uses and are indispensable in their place. But there are also many articles which are at their best when the right kind of polish sets off natural beauty of grain or shading.

If you're fortunate enough to own a bit of mahogany or maple or walnut, don't try to hide the lily as it were.

Let nature show off, and give it just a little assistance by the right kind of polish. See that the wood is thoroughly cleaned and then apply

a simple wax polish. There are several excellent commercial products on the market, or you can prepare proportions of linseed oil and melted beeswax. Apply only a little at a time, rubbing in thoroughly with a soft cloth. Another soft cloth should be used for dry polish. Several regular treatments of this sort every few days will show off your fine pieces in their natural beauty.

Experts in fine woods can see beautiful grain and shade in everything—provided it's given half a chance. All wood has its good points, and even the imperfections and irregularities have a charm of their own, superior to machine-made flawlessness.

This is equally true of metal. Silver and brass don't have to shine mirror-like to be beautiful. They should be smooth and have a glow of their own, not an artificial gleam. A simple cleaning agent for brass and silver is 1 cup of whitening, 1/2 cup of water and two tablespoons of ammonia, shaken together and rubbed on the metal with a piece of clean flannel.

Or, if you prefer, use bacon fat instead of olive oil which also adds good flavor. Then the finished dish can be garnished with the strips of crisp bacon.

Plain boiled spaghetti served with mushrooms lightly fried in butter is a very pleasant and wholesome dish. Another simple way to prepare spaghetti is to serve it with a plain white sauce to which one tablespoon of curry powder has been added. Or, add to one cupful of white sauce 3 well-beaten eggs and let simmer a few moments, then pour over the hot spaghetti and re-heat in the oven a few moments. Chopped ham or dried chicken added to white sauce make an excellent dressing for plain spaghetti.

WAR COST SEEN IN U. S. FIGURES

Treasury Figures Show High Expenditures For 11 Months

Washington, June 20.—Out of $3,427,990,000 spent by the government, the first 11 months of the 1929 fiscal year, $2,056,734,000 represented costs directly attributable to the world war, or preparations for future wars.

Treasury figures today showed that all except $1,371,247,000 of the total outlay for government in this period was for the war and navy departments, veterans bureau, and financing of the public debt. These accounts were $31,750,000 heavier than in the same period of last year, despite a $58,000,000 decrease in interest costs.

While there were some civil activities in the war and navy departments, the large portion of the following items of government cost may be charged up to the war or preparedness:

War department, $358,071,000, increase of $27,239,000.
Navy department, $334,839,000, increase of $1,046,000.
Veterans bureau, $382,613,000, increase of $15,911,000.
Interest, $583,941,000, decrease of $58,000,000.
Sinking fund to retire public debt, $370,277,000, increase of $15,356,000.

Two years ago this month the General Electric Refrigerator was publicly announced for the first time.

Fifteen years of research and development had produced a refrigerator with an hermetically sealed, dust-proof mechanism, mounted on top... a refrigerator with an improved type of cabinet, mounted on legs... one with an accessible temperature control... that established a new standard of quiet operation... that required no oiling... that dispensed with all troublesome machinery...

that lowered operating costs... that carried an unqualified two-year service guarantee.

A radical improvement has been made in the cabinet! It is now all-steel! It cannot warp. It is as strong as a safe.

You can purchase the new models shown at our display rooms on conveniently spaced payments.

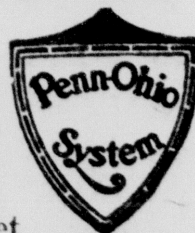

Tune in on the General Electric Hour broadcast every Saturday evening 8 to 9 Eastern Standard Time over the N. B. C. network of 42 stations.
